EMBRACING HOPE IN THE REIGN OF CHRIST

As we gather on this 34th Sunday in Ordinary Time, we unite our hearts and minds to celebrate the majestic feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. In the midst of the current scenarios of war that plague our world, it is crucial to reflect upon the reign of Christ and the message of hope and peace that He brings.

In today's readings, we are reminded that Jesus, our King, came not to conquer with earthly power, but to reign through love, compassion, and understanding.

The prophet Ezekiel reminds us that the Lord will personally shepherd His flock, seeking out the lost, healing the injured, and strengthening the weak. Our faith assures us that even in the darkest of times, our merciful King is present, offering hope and restoration.

In Matthew 25:31-46, we hear the powerful parable of the Last Judgment, where Jesus calls us to recognize His presence in the marginalized and suffering. This reminds us of our responsibility to work towards peace and justice, even in the face of conflict.

In the backdrop of these challenging times, we also celebrate World Day of Youth, a day dedicated to praying for the youth. Our young people face numerous struggles and uncertainties, including the effects of war and violence. Let us come together as a community to uplift and support them in prayer, guiding them towards a future built on peace, unity, and hope.

Peter Drucker once said: "Peace is not the absence of conflict, but the presence of justice." In the face of conflicts, let us be the beacons of hope, embodying the teachings of Jesus and working towards a world free from violence and suffering. May our actions, both individually and collectively, demonstrate the transformative power of love, forgiveness, and reconciliation.

As we gather for worship, let us pray for the victims of war, for our world leaders, and for the youth who are the future of our Church and society. May the reign of Christ, the King of the Universe, guide us in building a world where peace triumphs over conflict, justice prevails over oppression, and love conquers hate.

May God bless you all abundantly on this Sunday, as we embrace hope in the reign of Christ.

Wishing you all a blessed Sunday.
